

Allie Cicotte - Board Member

Allie Cicotte is a native of St. Louis and serves as the Director of Programs for the Clark-Fox Family Foundation and Project Manager for Blueprint4SummerSTL. She graduated from Truman State University in 2011 with bachelors' degrees in German and Spanish. Allie then joined Teach for America where she taught Kindergarten – 8 th grade Spanish, and then transitioned to teaching Kindergarten. While teaching, she loved working with students directly, integrating innovative approaches alongside traditional classroom curriculum, and learning new things about the educational landscape both nationally and in St. Louis. Allie saw a bigger opportunity to support families, schools and students at the Clark-Fox Family Foundation. In her role as Director of Programs, she seeks to create research and products designed to create better experiences for all constituents, high engagement, and successful children in the community.
