

Lisa Carrico - President

Lisa is a program director for the Missouri Humanities and oversees their Veterans Programs and the organization's role as the Missouri State affiliate for the Library of Congress Center for the Book. She has 12-plus years of experience developing, implementing, and evaluating a wide variety of public programs for diverse audiences. In 2022 she was an organizer for the first-ever Missouri Book Festival in Washington, Missouri. She currently serves as a Board Advisory for the Central II Region of the National Center for the Book and serves as the Board Chair for Turn the Page STL.

